To W. L. Garrison.

My Dear Friend,

I hear indirectly through my sister Emma that R. D. Webb is going to sail for the United States the 8th of this month. Has he written to you about it or can you tell me any thing of his plans? We shall be learned to see him.

When do you expect Mr & Mrs Villard? and Miss Garrison? & how do you all do?

I shall be very glad to get a few lines in answer to all these queries.

I have suffered a good deal from the cold spring but am better now, than I can scarcely venture to use my eyes at all.

Ever affectionately yours

A. W. Weston.

Best love to Mrs Garrison.
